JAYCEE GOES ON AIR WITH VARIED BILL

George Griffith And Lewis Bates Will Be Program Speakers Tomorrow

Miss Joanna Day, Bill Fox For Musical Numbers

Santa Ana junior college goes on the air over KREG, official radio station of the Santa Ana Daily Register, tomorrow evening at 7:30 p.m., the first of a series of weekly broadcasts, with Martin Bowman, newly-appointed program chairman, in charge.

The weekly programs, according to Manager Bowman, will be one-half hour in length and from time to time will be sponsored by various campus service clubs. "Tune in on the programs and show the Register station that you are interested. The courtesy extended us affords a wonderful channel through which we may advertise our college, not only to the people of Santa Ana but to the entire county as well," Bowman said.

Bates Speaks

Tomorrow night's program will be opened with a short talk by George Griffith, president of the Associated students. Bill Fox and Miss Joanna Day will feature the musical program.

Lewis Bates, commissioner of forensics and assembly chairman, will speak on "The Purpose and Function of the Y. M. C. A." The five-minute talk will be the first of a series to be given by prominent Dons, according to Bowman.

One-act plays will be presented in the near future, and it is planned to have Miss Myrtle Martin and her club appear within the next month.

Talent Needed

Bowman urges every student who would like to participate in the broadcasts to get in touch with him immediately. He plans to outline programs one month ahead. Talent along musical lines will be greatly appreciated, he states.

Study Of Famous Artists Made By College Tatlers

To familiarize themselves with the various paintings in the Huntington art gallery, which they expect to visit soon with the Alpha Rho Tau, the Tavern Tatlers devoted their last meeting in the junior college library to a study of famous artists.

An appropriate introduction to the study of the evening was a history of the Huntington library, outlined by Miss Betty James. Reports on the lives and works of the painters chosen for discussion were given by the Misses Celestia Straub, Elizabeth Skiles, Messrs. Bernard Sharpley, Jack Green and Wilton Hilliard.

Jack Bergen read his initiation paper, an amusing and vivid account of his trip to Australia.

It was announced that a letter to Thomas Hall Glenn, English department head now in Europe, would be the main feature of the next meeting, which is to be at the home of Mrs. Robert Northcross.

Members present were the Misses Elsie Cook, Alice Myers, Elizabeth Skiles, Celestia Straub, Goldie Peale, Mary Mateer, Betty James, Jane Cunningham and the Messrs. Jack Green, Wilton Hilliard, Jack Bergen, Bernard Sharpley, Mrs. Ruth McNeil, and Miss Agnes Todd Miller, the adviser.

Koons And Eastman Win El Don Guess Contest

Russell Koons and Kenneth Eastmans this week were awarded logic tickets to the Orange County Dance Pavilion, as a result of a guessing contest staged by El Don in regard to the outcome of the Santa Ana-Fullerton football game Thanksgiving Day.

Turning in 13-7 and 13-6 guesses respectively, Koons and Eastman, out of 18 students who submitted coupons, stood alone in their predictions, with all but Miss Elizabeth Skiles saying that Santa Ana would win. Miss Skiles favored Fullerton 7 to 6. Fullerton won 19 to 12.

Gene Olsen declared today that he had predicted a 19 to 13 win for Fullerton, had filled out one of the El Don coupons, but had forgotten to turn in his guess. Lewis Vandermast predicted a 13 to 7 victory for Fullerton but also failed to respond to El Don's offer.

Sixteen Members Of Science Club Visit Randsburg

In line with their educational program, 16 members of the J. C. Engineers visited the Kelly and Yellow Aster mines in Randsburg Saturday.

As guests of G. O. Cole, part owner and superintendent of the Kelly mine, they were conducted through the Yellow-Aster mill where the process of flotation and cyaniding were explained to them and on Saturday the students went "underground" in the Kelly mine.

Mr. Cole gave a talk Friday and conducted a discussion on mining and mining problems that face a mining engineer, as well as a short resume of the mining history around Randsburg. According to Aldon Melzian, club president, the trip was of special interest to geology students and to those who are considering mining engineering as a profession.

In spite of the fact that the Randsburg district was treated to a severe snowstorm and blizzard just a few hours before the Engineers arrived, they were warmly housed, according to H. O. Russell, faculty adviser, and spent a comfortable night.

Those taking part in the trip were Oliver Aufemberg, Estil Hamill, Clifford Hannah, Paul Moses, Thomas Mackay, Glenn R. Smith, Dick Pickett, Orel Hare, Charles Greenleaf, William Salisbury, B. Howell, Aldon Melzian, Glover Hendrickson, and Mr. Russell, the adviser.

Assembly Tuesday Has Variety Bill

Music, dramatics, and a short speech will feature next Tuesday's assembly which is being sponsored by the Brotherhood of Bachelors, oldest men's service club.

Miss Carolyn Mueller will play several piano selections. The drama class has been working several weeks on a variety of plays and will present either "Back of the Yards" or "The Moving Finger" Tuesday. Both plays will be given at a public performance tonight, and the one which scores the biggest hit will be offered at the Bachelor assembly, according to Ernest Crozier Phillips, instructor.

TAKES BRIDE

McKee Fisk, dean of the Santa Ana junior college who recently married Miss Naura Best, San Pedro teacher and niece of the Rev. George Warmer, Santa Ana.

Dean McKee Fisk Wins Bride Over Jaycee Holidays

Coming as a complete surprise, the marriage of McKee Fisk, dean of the Santa Ana junior college to Miss Naura Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Best of Medford, Oregon, was solemnized at 9 o'clock Thanksgiving morning in the chapel of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Santa Ana.

Suggestive of the season, chrysanthemums in a variety of shades made appropriate decorations for the occasion. The bridal couple was accompanied to the altar by Miss Lois Ballou of San Pedro, and Walter Scott of Long Beach. The Rev. George A. Warmer, pastor of the First M. E. church, and uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Musical numbers were given by Mr. Fisk's sister, Mrs. Brace of Glendale, and Mrs. George A. Warmer of Santa Ana.

The Drama club, the first to be organized in the Santa Ana junior college, will endeavor to further interest in the dramatic work that is being done here, as well as to give collegians and townspeople good entertainment. As planned, the club will meet at regular intervals in the auditorium to give performances of the outstanding one-act plays, and possibly a three-act play or two.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Fisk left for a short trip in the north. Upon their return Mr. Fisk took over his duties here Monday as a member of the junior college faculty, and Mrs. Fisk returned to her position as teacher at San Pedro.

For the present the Fisks will make their home in Long Beach.

Collegian Killed In Auto Accident

James Pettit, popular Santa Ana junior college student, was instantly killed last Wednesday night in Los Angeles, when the car in which he was riding skidded on a wet pavement, struck a telephone pole, and turned over.

Pettit, with Lehman Gerkin, also a junior college student and driver of the car, and Miss Muriel Rogers of Santa Ana was returning from a fraternity dance in Los Angeles when the accident occurred. Neither of the other two occupants of the car was injured. The coroner's inquest was scheduled to be held in Los Angeles Friday afternoon.

Christmas Party In Y-Hut Is Scheduled

In commemoration of Saint Nicholas day, December 6, which is celebrated by the people of northern France, L'Hotel de Rambouillet, college French club, will hold its Christmas party in the Y-hut tomorrow from 5 to 8 p.m.

The meeting will be in the form of a Christmas dinner.

DRAMA CLUB IN FIRST OF NIGHT SHOWS

Variety Of Entertainment Will Be Presented In Jaycee Auditorium

Nominal Admission Charged To Defray Expenses

There will be no admission to the performances tonight. The program has been reduced. Only two one-act plays, "Back of the Yards," and "The Moving Finger" will be presented, it is reported.

It will be amid footlights and borders tonight that the newly-organized Drama club will make its debut to the Santa Ana junior college when, in the auditorium, at 8 p.m., a series of four one-act plays will be presented.

Everyone is invited to attend. Ten cents will be charged for admittance in order to defray the expenses that will necessarily arise from the productions, Ernest Crozier Phillips, director, states.

Plays to be presented are "The Woman Who Understood Men", "The Rookie and the Rules", "Back of the Yards," and "The Moving Finger." "The Woman Who Understood Men" is a comedy; "The Rookie And the Rules" is a farce; "The Moving Finger" is a serious play; and "Back of the Yards" is a melodrama. The purposes of this variety in the program is to show the public as well as the college, the different types of drama that the college classes are attempting, according to Phillips.

The Drama club, the first to be organized in the Santa Ana junior college, will endeavor to further interest in the dramatic work that is being done here, as well as to give collegians and townspeople good entertainment. As planned, the club will meet at regular intervals in the auditorium to give performances of the outstanding one-act plays, and possibly a three-act play or two.

Mr. Phillips, adviser, states that the club is one that has long been needed here in order that those interested in the field of drama might be able to witness, and also be in the presentations of the plays that will be given.

When sufficient funds have been raised Mr. Phillips hopes that the club will be able to get a charter from a national society. If this plan is carried out, the Drama club members will have the privilege of witnessing the dramatic attempts of other junior colleges.

Phi Theta Kappa Bulletin Mailed To S. A. Chapter

Commemorating the second anniversary of the recognition of Phi Theta Kappa as a national organization, the second national Phi Theta Kappa Bulletin was published recently and sent to all chapters in the United States.

At a meeting of the American association of junior colleges in Atlantic City, national recognition was given Phi Theta Kappa, and in the bulletin a hope was expressed that each anniversary would be remembered in some fashion.

In this paper are included statements from various chapters throughout the country concerning their activities and their opinions on different subjects. In addition to this there are essays and odd notes.

The new bulletins have arrived at Santa Ana junior college, and any member desiring a copy may call for it in Miss Lella B. Watson's office.

REPORTORIAL STAFF
Wayne Bartholomew, Virginia Bishop, Jane Cunningham, Robert Durbin, H. Tradewell, wishes to spring a "Did-You-Know-That" column on us this week. Unable to find anything worthwhile commenting up, except for the rally (that has been covered rather completely in this issue), I see no reason why I should not allow the young man to speak his bit. Here goes:

DID YOU KNOW . . . That the Japanese are superstitious?

Japanese are much more "choosy" than the Americans about their telephone numbers and are willing to pay real money to avoid a jinx by unlucky numbers. They often pay from $500 to $2,000 for numbers they believe are the harbingers of good fortune. Eight is the favorite figure, with three, five and seven also popular.

That there are seven vertebrae in the neck of giraffe. This number is not greater than in other quadrupeds, and the neck has no extraordinary flexibility, although its form and movement is very graceful. The length, therefore, is due to the elongation of each cervical vertebrae.

That college campuses vary greatly in size. Some urban colleges have virtually no campi. Campi maintained by land-grant colleges differ considerably. The largest is that of the Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical college, totaling 800 acre, and the next largest is that of the University of Florida with 673 acres.

Others vary from 60 acres at the University of New Hampshire, to as little as 15 acres at the University of Idaho.

That the longest tunnel in the world is not for foot, automobile, or train. It is part of the Catskill water supply system and is used to deliver the water of Schoharie creek to the Ashokan reservoir. This is the Shandaken tunnel, 18.1 miles long, put in service February 9, 1924, New York city receives its drinking water from this system.

That one of the best funeral orations of modern times was delivered recently by an American Indian standing by the grave of his chief. Here it is—beautiful, simple, and true.

"You have merely lost the man. You still have the world in which he lived and which he so enjoyed. You still have its beauty and its loveliness, and you still have the blue skies to which he looked; you ave the wind and the rain and the sun and the silver moon. The stars still will glitter in the skies at night; the corn still will ripen; the deer will roam the forests of your fathers, and the fish will leap the streams.

"The Great Spirit has only taken to Him the man. You lose only that. He will be happy there in the hunting grounds of our fathers. The Great Spirit leaves all the other things and leaves the memory of the son he has taken to his tepee."—W. H. T. . . .

Now take that rally—go ahead—just take it! The Junior Lions worked for nearly a week gathering wood for the bonfire.

Time and money were spent to make the affair a success. Do you suppose they realized while working far, far, into the nights preceding that only a few walking corpses would show up, and even then would take no part in the celebration? Do you suppose they thought while piling trash and old lumber, that the pole rush—time-honored tradition of all collegians—would turn before their eyes into a childish tussle with only a few participating while the rest of the chicken-hearted male population of the college hung sheepishly onto the arms of co-eds who in all probability brought the little darlings to the shin-dig?

What few did participate in the pole rush showed more spunk and made more noise than the entire group piddling around with a few half-uttered songs on their lips and a sheepish expression on their faces.

About half way through the rally a shout went up "Let's go to Fullerton!" Think they did it? Not on your life. It seems that someone or somebody had told them college students were more dignified than that, so the party broke up at 8:30 and the pansies were escorted home and tucked carefully away in their beds!

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Cooperation Versus Individualism

An age of technology and science needs careful planning and thorough-going cooperation, something that is missing in individualism. Individualism, no doubt, has its good points, but cooperation is to the everyday world what oil is to an automobile. You cannot do without it.

Cooperation does not mean the kind where a student feels that it is his obligation to assist the rest of the class in passing the final examination, or having the rest of the class assist him. Cooperation comes about only where prejudices are discarded and a sincere desire for advancement is predominant.

What Is The Matter, Anyway?

Now that it's all over, said and done, some newspaper columnist would have to dig into the depths of fact and discover the real reason why we lost the game with Fullerton last Thursday. Yes, and we flatter ourselves by thinking that we really have found it!

Want it? All right, here goes—

Santa Ana lost the game with Fullerton for the simple reason that the Don players were aware of the fact that a bunch of half-hearted, spineless snipes who called themselves supporters of the team were parked in the bleachers and draped unartistically around the edges of the field, not giving two wiggles of a rat's whiskers whether the team lost or won.

Dons, huh? Ha-ha-ha and a couple of pish-tishes!

If the old Californians could see the absence of spunk, spirit, and general intestinal fortitude of their namesakes, they would turn over in their pity holes and the omitted "perhaps" isn't a typographical error. Why, some of those old pleasure-lovers who have been dead and buried for 50 years could probably show more excitement and do a better job of letting the town know that there was going to be a scrap nearer than the one in Manchuria than any of that bunch at the rally.

Now take that rally—go ahead—just take it! The Junior Lions worked for nearly a week gathering wood for the bonfire. Time and money were spent to make the affair a success. ## HORNETS WIN SENSATIONAL GRUDGE GAME

Fullerton Backfield Aces Show Great Strength In Running Attack

In a game packed with thrills and heartaches for both sides, the Yellowjackets of Fullerton finally found the vulnerable spot with their potent tinger in the annual Thanksgiving Jaycee brudge battle to defeat the Champs the close call by tying them in a lead in which Long Beach held a 6 point lead until the closing minutes of play.

The Southern California play off will be between Compton and Riverside Jaycee which is scheduled to be played off this week. The Tartars will be conceded the edge undoubtedly through the fact that the Dons defeated Riverside 13 to 0.

The final standings of the Jaycees for the year are as follows:

	W. L. T. Pet.
Compton	5 0 1 .833
Long Beach	3 0 3 .750
Glendale	3 2 1 .583
Pasadena	3 3 0 .500
Fullerton	3 3 0 .500
Santa Ana	1 4 1 .250
Los Angeles	0 6 0 .000

The games count half-a-game won and half-a-game lost.

was brought back as far as the seven yard line where Pickens attempted a line plunge and fumbled, David Maxwell recovering the ball over the goal line for the second six points.

Rogers and Pickins Star

Rogers intercepted a pass of Higashii on his own 24 yard line to run 76 yard for a touchdown, twirling himself through the Santa Ana team with excellent blocking on the part of his team mates for Fullerton's second touchdown.

The third Hornet touchdown arrived after a series of first downs which were made by Rogers and Pickens, placing Fullerton on the Don one yard line. After two line plunges by Pickens which failed to gain, Rogers sneaked over the goal line giving Coach Art Nunn's eleven a 7 point lead which put the game on ice for the Yellowjackets.

It looked for a few precious and fleeting moments that the Dons would score another touchdown and possibly tieing the score through their valiant passing efforts in the last minutes of the fourth quarter.

Higashii completed three passes starting at the 30 yard line, two to Brooks and one Beall, which marched the Don team well into the Hornet territory. Sheldon of Fulerton put the wrench in the works by intercepting a lateral pass on his own 40 yard line and running it back to the 20 yard line, marking the end of the Don threats for a touchdown.

Compton Captures J. C. League Crown

Sid's Sport Column

BY SID MAGNUSSON

Before we turn our attention from the immortal game of football to the great game of basketball let us reconnoitre, as it were, a little over the players of the past season.

There are four players from the Don eleven which deserve special mention in the consideration of those who should be recognized in the vote casting for the All-Western Division Junior College football eleven. They are in person Captain Mike Santa Cruz, James Hall, Harry Clayton, Hideo Higashi.

Captain Santa Cruz and Harry Clayton are a pair of tackles which equal in offense and defense any other pair of tackles in the conference. If it had not been for the mediocre success of the team, and the ill-fate of which Captain Santa Cruz was the victim, it would have been difficult to have kept either one of the two from the All-Conference team. Moreover, because of Mike's hard luck, the team also suffered in both spirit and power.

Offensively and defensively, and furthermore tempermentally there was not a better tackle in the conference in the estimation of his team mates and followers. It was a great loss to the team when the Captain sustained his leg injury for three league games.

Jimmie Hall should come in for a big hand from everybody for his deadly effective defense work which he continuously played for his team. Without a moment's hesitancy it can be said that as a blocking and defensive halfback, Jimmie ranks with the best of them. On numerous occasions Jimmie was the wrench in the machine which wreck the opponents running offense by hard vicious tackling.

Unrestrained praise should go to his unsung heroic work for his Alma Mater and team mates. If the Don team had figured more impressively in the standings of the conference teams, it would have been hard to cut him from the list.

We can dismiss from our minds the "ifs" and "ands" when we speak of Hideo Higashi. Higashi has played in every game and every quarter with the exception of one or two. He played two different positions on the team, alternating between halfback and end. He played a triple-threat game. On defense he was often the punter, the tackler, on offense he was often the ball packer, the passer, receiver and a goal kicker. The right end at which Higashi often played was a stonewall to the strongest teams in the conference. Considering him from every angle, Hideo Higashi sums up to be the man for one of the halfback positions on the All-Western Division Junior College eleven.

This article is not complete. In fact it would be far from just to the rest of the team if it were considered complete. Notwithstanding this fact, the line must be drawn somewhere, however cruel it may be to some of the other outstanding members of the

SOPHOMORES TO REPRESENT THE COLLEGE FIRST TEAM AT LONG BEACH DEC. 5

Y-Hut Is Scene Of A. W. S. Women's Tea

Entertaining the women of the college, the A. W. S. held a tea in the Y-hut before the Thanksgiving holidays.

The hut was decorated in a profusion of yellow and orchard flowers, with bright yellow candles in rustic candle holders. Yellow crepe paper under whited perforated dollies were used as coverings as the tables, together with bouquets and candles added to the attractiveness of the affair.

Hazel Hushman, president of the Associated Women Students, gave the welcoming speech. Margaret Rust sang two vocal solos accompanied by Esther Souder. Eleanor Wisner gave two piano selections, while Jo Anna Day rendered two flute solos accompanied by Eleanor Wisner.

Tea, sandwiches, cookies, nuts, and mints were served. Mrs. Robert Northcross and Mrs. John Tessmann, advisers, poured the tea. While refreshments were being served Ele-snor Wisner played a number of popular piano selections.

Committees: Decoration, Marion Parsons, chairman; Dora Tedford, and Elizabeth Palmier. Program, Virginia Warner. Refreshments, Carolyn Mueller, Altheia Lembe and Mina Everett.

MANY CAGERS TURNOUT FOR JAYCEE TEAM

Tentative Schedule List Includes a Game With Phoenix Ariz. J. C.

A host of casaba tossers greeted Coach Bill Foote for the first practice session after he issued his first call for candidates Monday. Most of the conference teams have been practicing for two weeks due to the difference in football schedules.

Coach Bill Foote has arranged for practice competition after the first few days of drill with such teams as the Anaheim Clothiers and many of the Santa Ana Church league teams, including the M. E. South and the First Christian teams.

Prospects for a successful season seem particularly bright for the Don basketballers. A number of high school flashes of the Orange league and from Santa Ana high school have reported. Henry Thierry of Tustin was among those who reported. As the basketball fans well know, it was Henry Thierry who was the cause of a great deal of anxiety to his opponents teams in the Orange league. Also Leo Gaspar, forward from Santa Ana high school; Russell Sullivan, Maxon Stull, and Ed Bragg, of the Santa Ana church league; Fred Brooks, former Huntington Beach ace; Jimmie Hall, sensational guard of the Coast Preparatory league; and Emmett Seacord and Ellwood Lindley, returning lettermen.

A number of Coach Bill Cook's championship Saint Class B team of a few years ago reported for practice. They are Lindley, Hall, Sullivan, Hideo Higashi, and Earl Homan.

Other candidates who were among those who checked out suits were: Harold Berry, Burton Allen, Harry Holmes and Harold Dwyer, forwards; Horace Ritner, center; Kenneth Gilchrist, Dante Siracusa, Mike Santa Cruz, Lucius Conkey, and Garth Olsen, guards. It is expected that this list will increase considerably within a few days.

Case Handled By Students Of Santa Ana College Law Class

Attorney: So he thinks it sufficient to tell his class only the morning before. It seems to me that he has neglected his duties by not informing the members of the class beforehand.

Fisk: Mr. Walkup, is it not a fact that instead of meeting on Nov. 11, we met on Nov. 12, which was Tuesday night?

Ans.: Yes.

Fisk: And didn't we meet on the 5th of October instead of the 6th?

Ans.: I don't remember.

Attorney: I object as being incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and without any foundation laid, and as leading the witness.

Fisk: I am merely trying to show that we have changed the date of the meeting before without damaging the class. Don't you remember that?

Ans.: I don't remember.

Fisk: You are a very good forgetter. I see it pays to forget some things. You are dismissed. Call my next witness, Mrs. Northcross.

Mrs. Northcross (being sworn in) I'll tell the truth if it is convenient.

Fisk: What is your name?

Ans.: Mrs. Eleanor Northcross.

Fisk: You are an excellent pedagogue?

Ans.: Yes.

Fisk: Is there any way that I can teach better on Wednesday than on Tuesday night?

Ans.: I think that underlying this charge there is something else, possibly the question of matrimony. I wish to say that I am partially to blame because I have often urged Mr. Fisk to take the step he has just taken.

Fisk: You know that when a man's mind is fixed on other things besides accounting, he cannot teach accounting very well and it would be better for all concerned if he would change the hour of the lesson to some time when his mind is not occupied with other things.

Attorney: Don't you think that the class was damaged by the change of evenings?

Ans.: Well, if you had the class on Tues. night then you could go to prayer meeting on Wed. night. Maybe a little divine intervention would help. I'm sure that I need a lot to help my bankbook sometimes.

Attorney: That is all.

Fisk: Call Miss Erskine.

Fisk: What is your name.

Ans.: Carol Erskine.

Fisk: You know all about my business, don't you?

Ans.: I think I do.

Fisk: You know that the reason for my absence was not unpremeditated?

Ans.: Yes.

Fisk: This class was notified four weeks in advance of the change of date, wasn't it?

Ans.: Yes.
Fisk: You noted no absences that evening?

Ans.: I did not.

Fisk: Did you hear any complaints.

Ans.: No, the whole class seemed quite cheerful.

Fisk: If there were not complaints there should be no damages.

Fisk: Cross examine.

Attorney: You know all about Mr. Fisk's business?

Ans.: I think I do.

Attorney: What was his reason for not meeting the class on Wed. night?

Ans.: He had a dinner engagement.

Attorney: What makes you think that the class was not damaged by his absence?

Ans.: Well, the whole class seemed cheerful and there were no absences.

Attorney: Were you there?

Ans.: No.

Attorney: Then how do you know that there were no absences?

Ans.: I got the record.

Attorney: Your honor, I don't think that we ought to consider the evidence produced here. The evidence is only hear say on the part of the defendant.

Fisk: It is quite clear, your honor, that the attorney is endeavoring to confuse the witness.

Attorney: Witness dismissed.

Judge: The case will be adjourned until Wednesday at this time when I hope the jury will bring in a verdict of guilty. Case is adjourned.

Dons Represented At Pasadena Meet

Sheldon M. Hayden, head of the public speaking department, was in attendance at the three-day convention of the Western Association of Teachers of Speech, held at the Community Playhouse, Pasadena, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. All colleges, junior colleges and high schools west of the Rocky mountains sent delegates to this session.

New developments in the field of speech were considered. Outlooks and trends of future speech were also dealt with in detail. Several very interesting papers were read by the heads of some of the colleges and universities throughout the country.

The banquets during the convention were staged at the St. Ann's Hotel. The speakers at each of these banquets were representatives from the different motion picture industries.

Beginning German Students Invited To Join Old Club

"Die deutsche Studentin", commonly called the German students, have been asked by Clayton Kaps, president, to join the German club now instead of waiting until the second semester.

Kaps has asked that all interested please sign the list on the bulletin board in room 205. He stated that inasmuch as Christman originated in Germany and is celebrated more there than in any country, the German club will have a special luncheon and program the last day of college before the Christmas holidays.

The luncheon in the teachers' cafeteria will precede the main program from 12:50 to 1:45.

Names will be drawn a week before, and inexpensive, humorous gifts will be given, accompanied by a "German jingle" explaining their use. German songs, skits, and poems will be given, as well as some talks of the manner in which Germany celebrates the annual festival.

Last year the club studied some of the German authors, their lives and works. Miss Lella Watson, club adviser, said that she had received considerable praise from several other junior colleges in Southern for its interest and study of German people and customs.

Brayton Explains Studio Processes

Visiting the Brayton Pottery studio in Laguna Beach was the assignment of Miss Ilse Hamann's pottery class last week.

Mr. Brayton explained the process of pottery making and showed the class many interesting pieces of his experiments in both the work shop and display room.

The Brayton studio has been established as "The Home of Laguna Pottery" for four years. It is especially well known for the variety of color.

The junior college class invites students to see the work it is doing by visiting Bungalow D Thursday afternoons.

Artists Will See Painting Exhibit

Through the courtesy of the Laguna Beach art association, the college art department has until December 9 to view the regular annual exhibit of paintings made this year by Laguna artists.

Approximately 30 canvases ranging from still life to landscape of desert, mountain, ocean, and country farms comprise the exhibit.

Art students will gain the greatest value from studying the nice composition and good color which characterize the still life paintings, Miss Anna Giles, instructor, says.

Yearbook Editor Holds First Meet

For the purpose of discussing initial plans for Del Ano, Miss Dulcie Green, year book editor, assembled staff and advisers at a combined business and social meeting Wednesday evening at her home in Orange.

As a means of introduction, each member told his name and position on the staff. The duties of each position were outlined, and Miss Green announced that everyone would have a chance to work on the annual as a whole as well as on his own section. Plans for the organization of the book were discussed.
